Joplin Woman Dies In Wreck

CARTHAGE, Mo. — A Joplin woman was killed and her husband and daughter injured in a one-car accident on highway I 44, four miles east of Carthage at 8:40 a.m. Sunday.

The victim was Sandra Kay Tate, 23, 4229 E. 26th St., Joplin. She was pronounced dead on arrival at St. John's Medical Center in Joplin where she was taken following the accident.

Her husband, Kelley H. Tate, 25, the driver of the car, received bruises and abrasions about the body. Her daughter, Tara Lynn Tate, 8 months old, received abrasions and bruises about the body. Both were taken to St. John's Medical Center for treatment.

The accident occurred when Tate apparently lost control of his car and it ran off the road and overturned three times, according to the highway patrol. Mrs. Tate was thrown from the car, the patrol said.

Born May 7, 1948, in Joplin, Mrs. Tate was a lifelong resident of the area. She was a member of the Duenweg Christian church, attended the Duenweg school system and attended the Joplin Senior High. She married Kelly Tate on June 4, 1965, in Duenweg.

Survivors include her husband; a son, Tracy Brent Tate, of the home; a daughter, Tara Lynn Tate, of the home; her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Ferguson, Duenweg.

The family will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, 7th and Moser.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by the Mason Chapel.
