

Terrie Neal Stevens

April 14, 1948 - July 25, 1998

Terrie Neal Stevens, 50, 1321 BraMar Drive, died at 5 p.m., Saturday, July 25, 1998, at her home of ovarian cancer.

Mrs. Stevens was born April 14, 1948, in Joplin and was a lifetime Joplin resident. She was a 1966 graduate of Joplin High School and attended Stephens College, Columbia, and Missouri Southern State College in Joplin. She was an officer and director of several business entities. She served as former chairperson of Friends of St. Avips and Angel Guild. She was a former member of Dorothea B. Hoover Museum and was active in several area cancer fund raising events. She was a member of St. Phillips Episcopal Church and Twin-Hills Golf and Country Club.

She married Giltner B. Stevens on Dec. 17, 1977, in Joplin. He survives.

Additional survivors include a son, William Kyler Davis, Joplin; a daughter, Whitney Neal Stevens, Joplin; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Neal, Joplin; a brother, Chris Neal, Lee's Summit; a sister, Martha Johnson, Joplin; and her maternal grandmother, Evelyn Marsh, Joplin.

The body will be cremated.

Memorial services will be 10 a.m. Tuesday at St. Philip's Episcopal Church. The Rev. Dan Erdman and the Rev. Roger Stinnett will officiate.

The family will receive friends in the church's St. Margaret's Lounge after the memorial service.

Arrangements are under the direction of Parker Mortuary.

Contributions may be made to Joplin Humane Society, in care of the mortuary.

Published in the Joplin Globe, July 27, 1998